The first meeting for men will be conducted in Tower Grove Baptist Church at a special conference afternoon. Edward C. Marion will deliver the address. The meeting will be rendered by the Chind Avoca Male Quartet. The meetings are intended to be distinctive features of the past and winter months in the church.

DOCTOR LANDRITH TO SPEAK AT CENTRAL Y. M. C. A.

DR. IRA LANDRITH.

Will speak at Central Y. M. C. A. to-morrow.

The Twentieth century and the Man of God will be the subject of a lecture at Central Y. M. C. A. to-morrow afternoon in the Reverend Doctor Ira Landrith, a minister of the Christian and Presbyterian Church and representative that denomination on the subject of the present status of the church with the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

Also, theological questions of the Bible Education Association of his church and school were selected to the presidencies of Belmont College at Nashville, Tenn.

He is considered one of the eloquent men of the South and his address to more promises to be one of the strong features of the fall work of the association.

The lecture will be held in the large auditorium of the association at 2:30 o'clock and will be preceded by a concert in the hall.

CR. MCLEOD ASSUMES CHARGE AT FIRST CONGREGATIONAL.

Call for One Year. Not Engagement Probably Will Be Permanent.

The Reverend Doctor Thomas R. McLeod has arrived from New York and will begin his pastoral at First Congregational Church, Main and Locust, next Sunday morning.

The charge was formerly held by the Reverend Doctor J. H. Hart, who now represents the Home Board of Missions with headquarters in New York. Doctor Hart resigned from the pastorate last winter, and since then has been without support.

Doctor McLeod has been called to assume charge of the work for one year, but it is thought that the call will be permanent.

He preached at the church for several months last spring and then departed for Europe. He has now returned to take charge of one of the largest Congregational churches in New York City, but was forced to resign there because of ill health.

To give Ten-Penny Social.

The Young Ladies' Circle of the Congregational Church on St. Vincent and California avenues will have a "Ten-Penny Social" on October 15. The teacher and scholars of the Hough Hollow Country School will entertain the visitors, it is announced.

License for the Poor.

The Reverend Father D. M. Johnson, S. J., of St. Louis University, will deliver a lecture in Holy Angels Chapel, the subject will be "The Quality of Mercy." His subject will be "The Quality of Mercy."

Archbishop Will Attend.

The annual meeting of the Queen's Daughters will be held in St. Rose School Hall, October 24, and will be presided over by Archbishop Gleeson, spiritual director of the organization.
